FACT SHEET

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Bar Pendry:

The modern Bar Pendry is a rich, moody space that welcomes guests for evening cocktails, an elevated menu of small bites and late-night conversation as well as a signature restaurant concept featuring indoor and outdoor dining offered throughout the day and into the evening.

Merois:

Located on the rooftop, Merois celebrates the open-air allure of the City of Angels with a menu that spotlights Chef Wolfgang Puck's eye for the sophisticated subtleties of Japanese, Southeast Asian and French/California cuisine.

Ospero:

This casual street-side European style café features a relaxed, all-day menu of neighborhood-friendly favorites including classic salads, handmade pastas, vegan dishes and renowned Wolfgang Puck pizzas, fresh from Ospero's wood-burning pizza oven.

LOCATION

Pendry West Hollywood is located at the intersection of Sunset Boulevard and Olive Drive, at the heart of the iconic Sunset Strip.

HOTEL OVERVIEW

The hotel features 149 luxury guest rooms, including 37 suites and an additional 40 private residences. Guests and residence owners have exclusive access to hotel amenities including a rooftop pool and bar, multiple chef-driven food and beverage outlets created by the legendary Wolfgang Puck, multi-purpose live entertainment venue, screening room, bowling alley, Spa Pendry, state-of-the-art fitness center and curated art collection. Commanding attention on Sunset Boulevard, the hotel is wrapped in 6,000 square feet of digital signage.

DESIGN

An elevated environment that feels rooted in the neighborhood, while redefining modern-day hotel design and urban living, Pendry West Hollywood was designed by internationally acclaimed architecture firm Ehrlich Yanai Rhee Chaney Architects and executed by Cuningham Group Architects. Pendry blurs the line between indoor and outdoor space to provide connection to sweeping views. Interiors by Martin Brudnizki Design Studio celebrate laidback California glamour through the interplay of two design concepts: Los Angeles at dusk and ocean waves.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Every guest room is designed with classic sophistication, distinguished with a modern twist. Clean lines, brass accents, decadent art deco inspired light fixtures and luxurious headboards pair with curated works of art and modern technology.
